Wakefield Council's Health Improvement Team is working to encourage people to carry out more of their journeys on foot or by cycle to improve the environment and their health.

Fit walking into your daily routine

Ditch the car and walk instead. For short trips to the shops, work or school, walking is an ideal way to get active.

Go for an evening stroll. You could make walking a family affair, starting a good habit for all the family.

Combine walking with other modes of transport. If a journey is too long, why not combine it with another mode of transport? You could walk with the kids to school and get the bus back, or take the bus to work, jump off a stop early and walk the rest of the way.

Make a plan and set yourself goals. Start by walking 10 minutes a day, and build yourself up. Ease yourself in gently, get used to walking a certain distance and then add to it.

Find a walking buddy. If you commit to meet a friend you are more likely to stick to it. Alternatively, a local walking group (advertised on www.walkingforhealth.org.uk) might suit you better.

Use a pedometer or other wearable fitness device or app to keep track of your progress. It's satisfying to see how many steps you've taken, the distance you've covered and how many calories you've burned.

During your lunch break, go for a walk instead of just sitting at your desk.

Walking is one of the easiest ways to be physically active – it doesn't even have to feel like exercise. All you need is a comfy pair of shoes, and once you get moving you'll feel fitter, healthier and happier.

Walking doesn't cost a penny, and fitting it into your daily routine is easy when you follow our top tips.

Walk for fun

Walking enables you to explore your local area on foot and get to know your community. Why not set yourself a challenge to walk in all your local parks and walking paths?

It's great for our planet

Walking doesn't leave a carbon footprint, just your own. And if we all swapped one weekly drive for walking, traffic would reduce by at least 10%. Imagine that.

Safer and quieter streets for children to play on and for people to socialise in.
